

AUSTRALIAN CLOGGING ASSOCIATION

A BRIEF HISTORY

April 17, 1987, Deakin University, Geelong, Victoria, Australia, Southern Hemisphere, Planet Earth.

Twenty-eight people gathered for an interest meeting. The subject was little known, some had tried it, some were doing it and the rest were just curious about this exciting dance form called clogging.

Let us go back a few months. Ralph and Phyllis Turner had notified their friends, whom they had introduced to clogging 2 years previously, that they would like to return to Australia, attend the 1987 Square Dance Convention, and go for Gold. That meant dancing in all States and Territories and attending the 1987 & 1988 Conventions. What an opportunity for fledgling cloggers and those who were not yet aware that they were cloggers.

Rae Kermond becoming the unofficial Secretary wrote the 28th National Square Dance Convention Committee asking for time and a room to hold a Clogging Interest Meeting and asking if we could advertise the fact that there would be an introduction to clogging and a workshop. We then proceeded to hire a hall for the only free time during that convention weekend, the Monday morning. The Convention Committee replied, giving us time for a meeting and informing us that no function was to be held on that weekend outside of the Convention. In view of this the Committee very graciously paid for the Clogging hall and provided the equipment for the clogging session, making it part of the Convention.

Gina Zaragoza had published the names of persons in each State who had showed an interest in clogging after an introductory session at the National Square Dance Convention in Perth. Edith Sandy sent a Letter to each of these people informing them of the interest meeting and asking them to notify any other interested people.

We were granted permission to do a demonstration at the Geelong Mall on the Saturday morning along with the Square Dancers. A combined group who had met at the Caravan Park and practiced (a Little), danced "Old Time Rock and Roll", Ralph and Phyllis Turner performed a number also. This created the interest for the Monday morning clogging introduction and workshop sessions. Two hundred and fifty people attended that Monday morning session. "If You've Got the Money", choreographed by Charlie Burns was taught by Ralph Turner that morning.

A brief history of Australian Clogging Association Inc.

Back to the interest meeting. Early morning found us in the foyer of the Theater, where a table, tape recorder, paper and pencils and twelve chairs had been neatly set out in one corner. Five minutes before starting time it became obvious many more chairs would be needed. Late comers made use of the carpeted floor for sitting.

Gary Brown the Convention Convenor, welcomed all who came and introduced Edith Sandy, who would chair the meeting. Jocey Collins was appointed to act as Minutes Secretary.

POINTS OF INTEREST;

Lucky Newton – suggested Jim White be approached to make clogging a part of future conventions. This was accepted by the Square Dance Convention AGM.

Lucky also volunteered to speak with the South Pacific Review Editor, to ask for space for Clogging articles. A regular clogging feature was granted.

A Coordinating Body was elected to look after the affairs of this new Association.

The name AUSTRALIAN CLOGGING ASSOCIATION COORDINATING COMMITTEE was accepted. A $1.00 joining fee was imposed.

State Contacts were to submit 5 dances each, to begin a register of dances for the conventions.

Ralph Turner spoke to a captive audience on the subjects: How clubs start from small beginnings and The Friendship and Joy of Dancing.

Proposal for future conventions, 1 hour meeting, dance session, including an introduction to clogging, Demonstrations and Workshop.
